Ashram Talk With Swami
 Dipavalli – Lakshmi Day Blessings
 Talk in the Baba Temple
 October 25, 2003

Swami: Happy Dipavalli to everybody. You know what is mean by Dipavalli, then Ramakrishna?

Ramakrishna: I understand it celebrates the day a rakshasa was killed by Vishnu, by Krishna.

Swami: Vishnu's wife.

Ramakrishna: Lakshmi.

Swami: Today is the... let's put it this way, simply, briefly, today is the Lakshmi Day and one day in Dwarkamai, Shirdi Baba, he wanted to make the lights on Dipavalli day. Everybody rejected not to giving the oil, then he put to the water to change to oil. Then he rejected the oil - candles. And Sri Maha Lakshmi is entering into his Dwarkamai then he said, "Don't enter into my Dwarkamai. If you enter lot of problems will come." Then She shocked, "Me coming personally in your Dwarkamai, how come you're not inviting me? I really want to come and sit in your Dwarkamai." "Whoever comes beginning of Dwarkamai touches, bless them to prosperity to remove their darkneses in their life." He didn't ask for himself, he asked for whoever visited Dwarkamai. The same thing in our Dwarkamai, Lord Shiva and Shakti, it's a kind of similar energy in that Dwarkamai also carrying it. And I really want to make everybody chant what I say three minutes. Can you chant nine times Omkaram, now three times Guru Mantra?

Swami chants a blessing to his students
