Lotus Process - Studying Vaastu

Talk in the Baba Temple

July 4, 2008

The next three days are the most crucial!

Swami: How is everything? Waiting for something? Tonight, tomorrow and the next day, these three days are most crucial days in your life. And I recommend to be in the sattvic food – only fruits and vegetables as much as you can. And I checked Tobias and Brett, they did good job scanning the book. So tomorrow sometime, try to catch me and we'll sit in the Theatre Room and have a look on the ancient days the palm leaf book what is this, the first part what you need to do.

And second part, I really have a confusion on you guys how much you're really capable on vaastu because Guru Purnima is ending very shortly. So, tomorrow night I'm conducting a test on the vaastu for just two hours. So tomorrow, whole day go through to review the vaastu principles. That's one of major subjects what you should know.

For one strong experience totally I prepared everything, I got clear signals, so waiting for the right moment. Make sure in the Dwarkamai - flame doesn't go out. Start Shiva Lingam abhisheks again. Within these three days try to make 108 your Womb Chakras - draw it and burn it. Make a sankalpam when you're burning it - what you been through, heartbroken, with many men or women in your life, all karmically recollect their names - must and should. When you're drawing that, thinking their names and within these three days try to burn it. And tomorrow make sure the most important the Vaastu test.

Swami: Monika B. you repainted Dwarkamai?

Monika B.: Yes, and the door got painted and the sets are painted. We didn't paint the whole inner room but...

Swami: Also clean the photos and put new kum-kum and yellow powder on them.

Sabeena: Monika B. and I aren't allowed to go inside anymore because we're before our menses.

Swami: Try to take somebody else. Constanze?

Constanze: Tomorrow I'm five days before menses, sorry.

Swami: Luzia, Birte, Veemala? And you can spend much time, especially the morning hours before sunrise and evening hours, like for one hour in the northeast Jesus spot. Just that area keep walking chanting whatever your meditation prayers. Your movement, most - majority need to be in that place. Who is the really good expert on the vaastu here guys? C'mon be strong, if you're confident why can't you raise your hands? Are you confident on vaastu Eric?

Eric: There's things I don't understand Swami, but I'm pretty confident. The fundamentals I'm strong in.

Swami: Am I sitting in the right place?

Eric: Yes.

Swami: How come you say that?

Eric: Because the southwest is the commanding position and the northeast is the place to receive the energy.

Swami: But my north is huge weight isn't it?

Eric: Your north?

Swami: Um-hum, and how many degrees this chair is tilted?

Eric: It's probably about fifty degrees.

Swami: Fifty degrees the chair is tilted, is it possible to sit?

Eric: Well I'd say fifty degrees from north but a little more than east. Actually it's not fifty degrees from north, it's like thirty degrees.

Swami: You have a compass?

Eric: No, I don't. I know the building is about eighteen degrees tilted.

Swami: This building is thirteen degrees tilted, but Baba is zero degrees, totally zero degrees, his statue straight. So tomorrow maybe you and Paul and Tobias, you three guys go through and review all the Vaastu bullet points. Tomorrow I'm going to give the questions quite harder. Even late night you're here completing that, then going on the bed. Sarah, do you know the Vaastu very well?

Sarah: Not really Swami. I'm a little bit nervous about that.

Swami: Constanze?

Constanze: (Can't hear clearly)

Swami: (Talking about his door to his back room next to his chair) To this building, this door is northwest, sorry southwest. Is it advisable to this mandir, that door is northwest. Is it good? (Inside the mandir, the closed door to mandir office, up by the Baba stage)

Brahma: It's good to go out of that door but not to go in.

Swami: Why?

Brahma: Because it's in the northeast to that room, so the exit is okay.

Swami: Intentionally I fixed it. Generally I never sleep there. It's very rare. The Vaastu is also very, very, powerful subject what you should also learn in your life. Spirituality is Part One - Vaastu is Part Two. Even though you have tons of experiences, tons of abilities la, la, la, whatever you do, if you're staying in anti-Vaastu place, it will ruin your life - take it as a golden statement. If it's anti-Vaastu, forget it, you cannot survive, you cannot succeed. No matter what, how much powerful you are - you're a zero. Even you win the five elements, if you're in the crazy five element's energy, anti-Vaastu - it ruins your life. So you need to be the expert on the Vaastu principles. Fundamentals. What is the major question you didn't understand on the Vaastu?

Eric: Well, it's not a major question maybe, but you taught me recently that the roof can take care of a northeast cut in the walls, but we should have small walls underneath that roof in the northeast cut.

Swami: I don't have outside, that much high walls. If it's not there it's a northeast cut one part, but the roof is there. If the roof is really cut, then you cannot fix it.

Eric: But you have the new hut over in the east, southeast garden, and it has the cut and roof but no small walls.

Swami: That's why the people are all the time fighting there. Three groups, intentionally I put it like that. I have to know what's going on there. Each complaint I'll receive. One group complains on another group; another group complains on another group. Sometimes I'm sneaky guy, I have to be.

But to my attendants, generally who are taking care on me, they're in my southwest, I'm in the northeast. They're all the time commanding on me directly, indirectly. "Oh, he's sleeping. Yeah, let him sleep." Since many days, many months, do you know majority where I'm sleeping Cyndria, where I'm sleeping majority?

Cyndria: In your Office.

Swami: In my Office room on the floor. I have a gigantic bed in the southwest but I sleep in the southeast place. If you're sleeping in the southeast it's making more active. Southwest, of course it's lot of pressure there, but you cannot think. I'm sleeping in office in tiny place. If I turn like this way - my desk; if I turn this way it's all wall. Has to... looking at Baba picture, "Thanks man, what can I do?" It's a, has to sleep. Sometimes I go in the Theatre Room, northwest. To be more active I sleep there - lot of thoughts. Whenever I'm going to go into action, that night if I slept in southwest the next day I'm attacking, I'm going to take action.

So, how you operate your place, like ten, fifteen hours, you through your body in one place. Sometimes from the Office I go to the Theatre Room. Theatre Room again I go to my bedroom. From my bedroom again I go to the northeast. My wife didn't understand. She thinks I'm crazy, "Leave him. Leave him like this." If she's sleeping on the southwest, I go sleep outside. Sometimes intentionally I put to the north my head. She puts to the south her head. She's, "Are you okay?" "Yes, fine."

The basic fundamental things - go tomorrow 8:30, finish your breakfast and non-stop the Vaastu. Take who... one sector north: northeast, north, northwest, west-north – what are the problems, mountains, all the stuff. Then go east, south, west - target, make all the north points, east points, west points, south points then mix it. Make again another one, the points. Then makes it easier to me. What Vaastu good points and what Vaastu negative points - all the negative points on Vaastu, what you should not do, then it makes easier. If you go through the book, it's huge. No, that's a big subject. Tomorrow when I wake up, try and catch me. We'll sit in the Theatre Room and Tobias, one more time check it tonight. Go through and get the projector. Clear?

Luzia: Swami, even in the Jesus Temple you have a southwest entrance. Does it create tension?

Swami: I'll explain. But ninety-five percent great Vaastu place is Penukonda, our ashram ninety-five percent - not compromised.

Raju: We continue our process in the Dwarkamai?

Swami: Take a little break tomorrow, go the Vaastu.

Raju: Can we do that mantra when we're walking in the northeast?

Swami: Sure. So whole our stuff is linked with that garden majority. What is in that garden? What is that energy hidden there? That's the major trigger we'll experience it. Good, time for Arati.
