Swami Talks in Japan
Universal Womb Chakra Process
Tokyo, Japan
November 23, 2008

Swami: To day what you're learning is very, very, interesting important subject, Universal Womb Chakra Process. Womb Chakra is nothing but giving the lot of purification to the soul. The Universal Womb Chakra - to really reconnect it for the eternal immortal creation point for whole creation in the planet, every creation any place - a seed of resume (resin), of immortal clarity - resume (resin) is there. If we started to think, "Is the seed is the first or the tree is the first?" Which is the first, seed or tree? I'm asking you question, Anna.

Anna: I would say the seed.

Swami: What?

Anna: I would say the seed is first.

Swami: How come you get without tree? Or another question, is the death is first, or birth is first? Is the light is first, or night is the first? Where is the beginning point? Where is the beginning point to started to count? Swami Kaleshwar - where is the beginning point of this Swami Kaleshwar? According the timetable - 1973 January 8th, early morning 5am, I born. Early morning, 5am, I came to the globe. Before that - where I am, where I am? '73 January eighth started, then some more date is waiting. The day started, but another day is also waiting. '73 to - dash - then another date. That dash is what? Are you really recognized that dash when after you..... you translating correct?.

Student: After you, meaning after death?

Swami: After death recognizing, is reconnecting, is, is only possible through Universal Womb Chakra - that is the main concept of today you're learning it. When I see a person, majority I won't see is in a physical form. Whenever I'm giving the healing, whenever I give initiations - today there is a many people receiving initiation - I'm not giving initiation to your body, I'm initiation to your soul to reconnect to your - the layers of your births, then going to the real birth.

One beginning point is there. One you connected to your beginning point, then there is no ending point. If you connected to your beginning point - there is no more anymore ending point. Then you can decide if you want to come back or not. And moreover - who did this process - who connected to this - they're the most unbelievable powerfully, well protected, protected in the divine cosmic. Many saints - supernatural masters - supernatural healers - supernatural the giving the enlightenment - they're all learned the same process.

A creation point is already in you, you're holding it. A creation capacity is in you, doesn't matter what form it is. A person, he created ten kids, a lady, she created ten kids - you created another soul. Doesn't matter the organ in your body's exist or not, but a spark of creation energy is in you, in the hidden. That spark of energy, once you're recognizing to seeing your creation energy - you are more free person in this planet.

Clear on this? Too much isn't it? You never heard about this, all of a sudden you're hearing - be honest. No, I'll go in natural way in your own way. Who did not understand any point here? I know your faces. Put in a one headline, one comment, "Winning the birth - winning the death." Winning the birth - speak - punch - loud - that's the today the concept.

Many depressions is coming heartbrokens, lot of sadness, lot of pain - is everything, is majority is hidden in the womb chakra - in that energy place. Entire in your body, that is the place is a holding it. This universal womb chakra, if you took initiation of universal womb chakra, if you received that energy inside to you - you'll wash away. Then, that initiation vibrations, that vibrations - this is hidden in you. Generally the birth and death energies cannot disturb you. And especially the kama energy cannot unnecessarily disturb you - too much desire energy. Who wonned the kama energy, too much wanting nature - doesn't matter you're alcoholic - you're too much attracted to the woman - too much attracted to the men - then it's driving your life is crazy. These all things will stop - started to protecting you by receiving of this initiation. Pretty good all your chakras is in your control. Clear?

If we see in the nature for example, there is a hundred sheeps is there, and hundred small sheep babies is there. Once you separated the sheep babies for two days, then once you release the sheep babies near the sheeps - we cannot recognize this baby is belongs exact to that mother, but the small sheep baby, that it'll exactly it'll go and it connect to the mother and it going drinking the milk. It's quite amazing how the mother is recognizing the small sheep and the small sheep is recognizing her mother - how the hundred sheeps is there, is going straight to the mother. It's a universal means, whole nature phenomena - the divine phenomena, that divine law - womb chakra.

You walking in the street, all of a sudden you saw a man. Doesn't matter what happen to you - in a seconds you saw it, the energy trigger to your womb chakra. Your all chakras is started to open, then you attracted, then you fall in love, then you cannot help it, you want it, you want her number, you want her address, you want to talk to her, you want to take a picture of her - then whole your story start there. You cannot help it. You cannot drink, you cannot eat, you cannot sleep - something wrong with you. Why? What is this happening? You seen thousand, two thousand ladies - ten thousand men in your life - after only some particular characters you seen it, it's a trigger on. What is happening? What is the mechanism there? That is the birth. When she gone from you, she said goodbye to you or he said goodbye to you - that is the death. Birth started in the womb chakra - when she said goodbye, death is there. After birth and death - birth and death - in chakra keep moving... that energy well disturbed, well wounded. Translated perfect?

Student: Perfect.

Swami: So to avoid this type of problems and also to reconnect it to who are you, to make that energy to divert to the God, the energy to divert to the cosmic to connect with him, to fall in love with him, to stay with him, to dissolve in him - that is the importance of the human life. Living the life long with the bliss - that giving the bliss is only possible through the universal womb chakra. That is the most important thing. Let it happen, all this creation activities. Your soul is, your chakra is getting up and down disturbances. To fix your chakra in your control today - that is our biggest step. Some people might think, "How can we believe Swami, there is a chakra in our body?" Yes, it is there. If you, for example this leaf, you dissect it and you putted in the scope, electronic scope - you can see a structure. A drop of water you see in the scope - you see a structure. In your creation, in the womb chakra, is hidden in it - but ancient days the saints and maharishis are seeing in their visions in the clarity way. They founded it, and they founded the mechanisms too, and they founded that prayers too, to fix it. It's very important process. Any questions?

Student: Last time I received the womb chakra process, and this is the universal womb chakra process, what is the connection or the link between these two processes?

Swami: Womb Chakra only belongs to you, the universal womb Chakra, to whole creation. Of course this is also related inside, in that womb chakra. Everybody have one part of womb chakra. If you see the elephant womb chakra, a lion womb chakra, a deer womb chakra, a snake womb chakra - lion is hunting the sheep, lion is hunting the deer - lion cannot eat the grass, but the deer has to eat the grass. Why the God is created the lion and the deer too? He created the lion, then he created the deer too... Is everything ok guys?

Student: We found the memory card.

Swami: It's fine; don't worry. This is another womb chakra - sit. So, why God is created a creation, and a hunting creation too? Sometimes as we, as human beings, we turn as very aggressive - like a lion behavior, like a very cruel behavior, like a, there is no love - just attacking, super anger - you don't care of somebody's feelings, just you want hunt. If you learn this, this process - even if you want turn as a lion, you cannot. Very loving, very bliss, very happy - lead the life smooth. In that lion womb chakra, he created only certain specific bijaksharas. If you learn everything entire in the creation, the men, the human being is very, very, powerful creation in the planet. Human have entire the creation power here - that much capacity is a human.

Somebody going on the moon, and they staying for a while there, but if you want to you go there - you cannot. It means his womb chakra, whatever he done it - he made it. He reached there. But he cannot reach as a spiritual scientist. But in future coming days, the human beings, they're going to discover and found it in the long-term role. If the science and spirituality come together, it is coming very together too - the wonders is going to create it. Wonders, no diseases, no deaths unless if you want to. So pretty wonders they're going to do it. It's a fact. So, where you draw the womb chakra, I hope you can see it - universal. Don't think only womb - Universal Womb Chakra. Is there, in case if you have it Ethan. Anna is a smiling, God is protected you. Can you display? (Everyone is amazed at the Universal Womb Chakra image)

Rhonda: They are saying they can't draw it - it's too difficult.

Swami: Same in this, you can add some more bijaksharas. Zoom here - you can add. How much time it takes to draw it? One hour?

Anna: Until tomorrow?

Rhonda: An hour 's good. (everybody laughing)

Swami: Good.

Anna: Can we ask a question? So Swami, in this yantra whole creation is hidden. And in the holy womb chakra there's only the human creation. And here's the whole creation?

Swami: But three steps need to again, fix it here. This is first step, second, third, fourth, again one layer coming fifth, sixth, seventh, one more arrow like that - saum here - kleem here. Aim - kleem - saum.

Anna: So aim is the fifth?

Swami: Yeah.

Anna: And kleem the second?

Swami: But this na ja ba ja ja ja ra - is very important.

Rhonda: Swami, it says personal two times. Is it the same one or should we have two different personal mantras?

Swami: Doesn't matter.

Anna: All these steps, what do they do?

Swami: I will explain. Don't think it's complicated like a simple room, simple... just make it round, round - easy! (Everyone is laughing) Can you go a little step back, back? (To the screen controller) Like this, like this, like this, then like this - go up - here, here, here, words - the all circles. (everyone laughing)

Anna: Is it circles or is it more like a drop?

Swami: It's ok. Ok zoom back - back - start to draw that - make a little lights on. (All exclaiming)

Anna: Is there any order?

Swami: Doesn't matter - come close - take a pencil set if possible.

Students: Can we take a picture?

Swami: Sure. Even if you did small mistakes, it's ok - done.

(Everyone talking and arranging to draw the chakra)

Swami: Don't worry - even if you did small mistakes right now, small mistakes don't worry - done right now.

Student: Can I ask a question?

Swami: Yes.

Student: Is this supposed to be the center of the circle?

Swami: Yeah. What you writing today on the piece of paper, I'm writing your Swami's personal mantra. I'm signing it to make it activate with your soul. That paper is staying for your life-time in your bedroom (Much happy exclamation from the students) That paper going to stay with your life with you.

Student: Swami, another question? The number of lines, are these ten? And should they be separate here or can they touch?

Swami: It's ok, don't make it complicated - do as you can. (Everyone is laughing and talking.) What?

Student: Don't ask too many questions.

Swami: This the time to do hard work - do it. One hour, make your attention - it's enough. (All students are working on the yantra)
