Ashram Talks With Swami
Swami's Birthday Message
Talk in front of the Baba Temple
January 8, 2010

In the afternoon, Swami is speaks to a group of Indian devotees and western students sitting in front of the Mandir

Swami: (Swami speaks Telugu.) Today instead of... (Swami speaks Telugu.). I... (Swami speaks Telugu.). It means we are all carrying the childhood positive. These, all the kids, and since many years I'm supporting them, contributing the literature, foods... Today, even though the state, we lost a great leader... and we're facing lot of hurdles, headaches, and the nature phenomena, whatever the nature creating the nuisance to us, especially to the A.P. State. For example, floods, and again, a big revolution wants to split this state into two parts.

It's really 2009 the most tragedy year to the AP State. I wish today would be the climax day for the tragedies. (Swami speaks Telugu.) Living together, dying together, no matter which religion you are, ananta vokem. We are Indians. We are? Indians. (Swami speaks Telugu.)

We never ever get afraid and... to be panic, no matter what whenever the circumstances really get crazy around us, that's the time to be strong together each others. Whenever you support each others a spark of the inspiration you create in others, can to be a leader of life, and happily and successful. (Swami speaks Telugu.)

Let it be as a simple. Let it be? As a simple. So even the Shiva Ratri Program, I want the Elephant Group to lead that. Hundreds of people are coming from different countries to celebrate the Shiva Ratri Festival in this year. And I hope these villagers and everybody will participate and enjoy that great occasion. Today is also my pleasure to spend with everybody.

Thank you so much.
